Military Medicine Symposium and Fundraiser to feature Dr. Andy Baldwin (from TV's The Bachelor)

Parker, Colo. - Parker, Colorado - Rocky Vista University College of Osteopathic Medicine (RVUCOM) is holding an informational symposium for college students and professionals interested in military medicine on Sunday, December 7 from 1:00-4:00pm and repeated on Monday, December 8 from 6:00-9:00pm at the University. The Symposium is free; however donations are encouraged at the door to support the Fisher House Foundation.

This informative session and discussion will highlight technological advances, challenges and rewards facing today's military medical teams. The panel discussion features military physicians including Dr. Andy Baldwin, Lieutenant from the U.S. Navy, also known for his TV appearance on ABC's reality show The Bachelor.

There is Fundraising dinner following the Sunday evening Symposium at 6:00pm. Dinner tickets are $25.00 and available by contacting Zea Moullet at the University, 720-875-2895. Contributions made at the dinner will also benefit Fisher House Foundation. The attendee's selected to sit at Dr. Andy Baldwin's table will be selected in part by their donations to this worthwhile charity.

The Fisher House Foundation donates "comfort homes," built on the grounds of major military and VA medical centers. These homes enable family members to be close to a loved one at during times of their needs and family stress such as times of hospitalization or treatment for illness, disease, or injury. Annually, The Fisher House Program serves more than 10,000 families, and have made available nearly 2.5 million days of lodging to family members since the program originated in 1990.
